	DAY 9: till Day 11, Cairo - Sinai Desert (B, L, D)        Breakfast at hotel, then Departure to the fisherman's city of Abou Zeniema, in which we head off road 45-km to the area of Sarabit El Khadem. We pass by ancient mining cities, colorful mountains and heaps of sand to finally reach the mountain of Sarabit. We park our cars and start our climb to the summit of the mountain to reach the ancient Egyptian temple of Hathor, we tour the Temple and later on visit the ancient Turquoise Mines. Upon our descent we reach the site of our Bedouin camp. We start crossing through the heart of Sinai to reach The Forest of Pillars 30-km off road, which resembles pillars standing out in the desert. All our meals Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner Bedouin cooking. Bedouin can be great cooks. Two favorite dishes are sand baked bread and fried dates. To make the bread you mix dough of flour, salt, a little sugar and water. This you roll out flat. You then scoop away the embers of the fire and lay the bread in the sand. Then cover with sand and embers. After ten minutes turn the bread over and cook the other side. Adjust the time depending on the thickness of the bread and how many embers you have. Though you may imagine the sand will stick it does not. Carefully brush with your hand and you will have a marvelous loaf of bread. Fried dates is very simple- just a little oil in a pan over the fire. Eaten when soft with the bread they are sweet and delicious &amp; Overnight in camps. DAY 12: 17 April 2011 - St. Catherine - Cairo (B, L, D):        At about 02 am start our visit to Moses Mountain where Moses came upon a burning bush that was, miraculously unconsumed by its own flames.
